

2023 WIFT Academic Scholarship Application

Please fill out the scholarship application completely, including the open-ended section on the following pages.

Student Contact Information

Name _____
Mailing Address _____
Primary Phone Number _____
Primary Email Address _____

Educational Institution Information

Name _____
Address _____

Academic Program Information

Current Program _____
Major _____
GPA _____
Expected Graduation Date _____
(mm/yyyy)

Each WIFT Scholarship Application must also include the following:

- ✓ College/university academic transcript showing course work completed to date (an official transcript is not necessary)
- ✓ Two letters of reference (academic/professional preferred)

Please email your completed application, transcript, and reference letters for receipt by Tuesday, February 28th, 2023 to:

WIFT Scholarships Committee
scholarships@WisconsinIFT.org

* Scholarship winners will be notified by March 10th and awarded at Student Night on April 13th, 2023.

If unable to attend, the committee will coordinate delivery of the winner's award via email. Winners will also be honored in the upcoming Wisconsin IFT Newsletter. **

For questions, please contact us at scholarships@WisconsinIFT.org and someone from the Scholarships Committee will get back to you as soon as possible.

Wisconsin Section
Institute of Food Technologists

Please provide the name(s) and descriptions of earned academic awards and/or honors.

Please provide one or two paragraphs about your career objectives and goals.

Please provide one or two paragraphs about your extra-curricular activities and clubs, including those related to your major/career goals (include any/all involvement with WIFT, IFTSA, and IFT).

For questions, please contact us at scholarships@WisconsinIFT.org and someone from the Scholarships Committee will get back to you as soon as possible.

Wisconsin Section
Institute of Food Technologists

Please provide one or two paragraphs about your related work experience – current job, work/study, and/or internships (paid or unpaid).

For graduate applicants only*, please provide a statement of your research interests.